Dear Sir:

Would you be interested in any part of a large collection of Napoleon 1st that is to be broken up at once? Many of the items could never be duplicated and are of great historical interest. The collection consists of

60	Letters signed by Napoleon 1793-1815
130	" " " the family of Napoleon
75	" " " the Marshals of Napoleon
700	" " " officials, etc.
200	" " " members of French Revolution, some by Marat, Danton, Desmoulins
50	Pieces of Statuary.
50	Personal Relics.
130	Old rare Engravings.
100	Fine Prints and Portraits.
1500	Medals and Coins, Gold, Silver & Pewter.
2000	Books of Napoleon and his period.

If among this wonderful collection there is any part that is of interest, I shall be glad to forward price and particulars on hearing from you.

Yours very truly,

Eugene Rosedale

Dear Sir:

In reply to your letter of May 13th would say that we are not interested in any of the Napoleonic material that you have to offer. At best we would only be interested in the coins and medals and we have several thousand pieces that would fit into this category.

Very truly yours,

HW:JG
